CHURCH WEEKEND AWAY

September 17-19, 2010, in Aeschi.

The Art of Faith: Since the dawn of civilization, humanity has sought to express spiritual realities through the use of art. A visit to a cathedral, a sculpture in a park or a painting in a museum all have the power to speak about truths that are sometimes ineffable. From the primitive scratchings in the catacombs, to the abstract stained glass in places like Cologne, Christians have seen art as something to bolster the spirit or instruct the faithful.

At this year's Fall Weekend, we will examine the intersection between art and faith. We will analyze works of art: what they have to say to us and how they say it. And we will create works of art ourselves. In the end, the hope is that we will see how art can be a companion on our spiritual pilgrimage.

Suitable for families with or without children, couples and singles, older and younger members of our church family – All are welcome!
